Background

J. B. Roy State Ayurvedic Medical College and Hospital, Kolkata is a heritage Institute of our Country and is a matter of great proud that Central Council of Indian Medicine declared the Institute as the oldest academic institute of Ayurveda. The institute was formerly known as Jamini Bhushan Astanga Ayurveda Vidyalaya and Ayurvediya Arogyashala. There is an annexed campus of the institute in the name of Patipukur Ayurvedic Hospital, which was earlier known as Patipukur T.B. Hospital. The Institute was established on 10th February 1916 with the dream, dedication and devotion of the founder Kaviraj Jamini Bhushan Roy (01.7.1879 – 11.8.1926) and the foundation Stone was laid down by the father of nation Mahatma Gandhi.

The Institute is well known for its supremacy in education, research and treatment of Ayurveda throughout the country. The fame of the Institute reached to its height even in abroad. The college has already completed its centenary year on 2015. The Institute received all the privilege of the AYUSH Branch, Dept. of Health & FW, Government of West Bengal to provide best health care facilities through the Ayurvedic system of Medicine for public interest.
