From: The Joint Secretary to the Govt. of West Bengal.

To : 1) The Director of Health Services & Ex Officio Secretary, WB;
2) The Director of Medical Education, WB.

MEMO

The following 15(fifteen) doctors, as mentioned in the annexure, had executed Indemnity Bonds [as per G.O. No. HF/O/MERT/912/ME/MISC-78-13 dt.31.07.2013] during their admission to Post Graduate diploma course of studies at different medical colleges as mentioned against their names in the annexure, under West Bengal University of Health Sciences in the year 2014.

In terms of the said Indemnity Bond they were to serve the State Government for a period of 1 (one) year after successful completion of their courses failing which they were supposed to pay the Govt. a sum of Rs.10 (ten) lakh.

After completion of their courses they were inter alia deployed as contractual Medical Officers (Specialist) at the hospitals as noted against their names in the annexure (vide G.O. No. H/MA/1523/HPT/32M-68-16 dt.10.08.2016.)

The aforementioned 15 doctors had served the State Govt. as contractual medical officers (Specialist) for a period of 1 (one) year as reflected in the annexure.

The undersigned is to convey that the Indemnity Bonds Obligation in respect of the noted 15 doctors now stand void and their original documents kept in the custody of Medical College/ Institutes may now be released.
