GUIDELINES FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF JANANI SURAKSHA YOJANA IN MUNICIPALITIES AND CORPORATIONS OTHER THAN KMC

Janani Suraksha Yojana (JSY) is a Centrally Sponsored Scheme by Government of India under the National Rural Health Mission which all State will have to implement under RCH II for urban as well as rural areas.

JSY replaces the NATIONAL MATERNITY BENEFIT SCHEME. The criterion and target group remains almost same as National Maternity Benefit Scheme (NMBS).

VISION of JSY:
- To reduce over all maternal mortality ratio and infant mortality rate, and
- To increase institutional deliveries in BPL families.

TARGET GROUP & CRITERION:
- All BPL pregnant women who are 19 years or above in age will be eligible for this scheme, up to two live births
- Those women who hold a BPL card or BPL ration card holder or enlisted under Annapurna /Antyodaya Yojana or Pavement dwellers will also be entitled for the scheme
- Those certified as BPL by the concerned Commissioner/Councillor/MLA/MP will also be entitled for the scheme

JSY – AN INTEGRATED PACKAGE:
- Focusing on antenatal care from the beginning and identification of pregnancy related complication,
- Providing appropriate referral to higher health facilities.
- Building an effective link between Government machinery and pregnant woman,
- Enhanced assistance for institutional delivery,
- Devising quicker and timely disbursement of cash benefits.

SCALE OF BENEFIT
- Under the JSY scheme, all BPL enlisted pregnant women who have attained 19 years of age and up to two live births will be eligible for an amount of Rs. 500.00 (No certification for age or number of living children will be necessary for this.)
- An additional benefit of Rs.100.00 will be given to these women, if her delivery takes place in any government/municipal health facility.

MODE OF OPERATION IN MUNICIPAL AND CORPORATIONS OTHER THAN KMC:
- The JSY card, along with the routine Maternal & Newborn Care Card is to be filled in and issued by any of the following persons:
Medical Officer /GNM/ANM of Government and semi government facilities including Health facilities run by NGOs, charitable trust and voluntary organization within the municipality area.

Any registered Medical Practitioner /private doctor

Honorary Health Worker of the municipality is also entitled to issue the JSY card

Eligibility regarding BPL certification to be issued by the Commissioner/Local Councillor/MLA / MP.

NODAL PERSON:

At the State level - DDHS (FW) will be the nodal person responsible for JSY.

Deputy CMOH III of the respective districts will be responsible for monitoring of the JSY scheme as the nodal person in these municipal areas in the districts.

FUND DISTRIBUTION:

All pregnant women eligible for JSY will receive an amount of Rs.500.00 in her last trimester of pregnancy from the municipality/corporation/Notified area office in her area

Those who will deliver in institutions will receive an additional amount of Rs.100.00 within 7 days if she delivers in a government /municipal health facility on production of the discharge certificate from the municipality/corporation/Notified area office in her area.

FUND FLOW MECHANISM:

Funds for JSY scheme in other municipalities will be transferred from State Health and Family Welfare Samity to State Urban Development Authorities with intimation to the District Health and Family Welfare Samity.

SUDA will then transfer the fund to the municipalities/corporation for further disbursement.

The Municipality will submit the SOE and utilization to the State Urban Development Authorities

State Urban Development Authorities will submit the SOE and UCs to State Family Welfare Samity quarterly

Funds will be released for the first quarter and second quarter but fund for third quarter will be released only after receipt of SOE of the first quarter.

PUBLICITY/ IEC:

JSY cards will be printed by the respective Urban Local Bodies/municipalities/corporations and made available to the beneficiaries from these units itself.

The specimen copy of the format of JSY Card (format 1), MCH Card (format 2) (in local language) and other related reporting formats will be provided by the State. Both JSY card and the Maternal & Newborn Care card will remain with the beneficiary.

NGOs and local clubs may be involved for implementation of the scheme especially in mobilization and awareness.

4 % of the money released during one financial year may be used as administrative expenses or for publicity by the respective ULBs. This would include monitoring and supervision, wall painting, printing of cards and other IEC as required and office expenses if required.
✓ Additional District Magistrate in charge of Municipalities may be identified as the Grievance Redressal Officer

MONITORING AND EVALUATION:
✓ The quarterly performance and financial report to be sent by State Urban Development Authorities in the standard reporting format provided by the State.
✓ Utilization certificates to be sent at the end of one financial year in the Form GFR 19 A.
✓ Regular monitoring visits will be taken up by the District authorities to assess the progress of the scheme in the urban areas.
